

DANIEL DE-LANTE BELL TROPHY
MOST OUTSTANDING PLAYER
CYO Varsity Boys' Mid-Atlantic Basketball
City Championship

"Daniel Bell"

Daniel was born November 8, 1984 and departed for his heavenly home on August 25, 1998, after suffering a heat stroke on his first day of high school football practice. Daniel had just graduated from St. Michael School, in Silver Spring and was starting his life as a freshman at St. John's College High School.

Daniel lived in Silver Spring, Maryland where he was an altar server at St. Michael's Parish and sang on the children's choir as a young child. The youngest of three boys, Daniel followed in his older brothers footsteps excelling in basketball and football. While attending school at St. Michael's he participated in CYO track and basketball. He received numerous individual awards. He also received most valuable player awards while playing football and basketball for the Woodridge Warriors

Daniel was a joy to be with on or off the field/court. His warm sense of humor, sensitivity towards others, and his caring nature brought joy to many people. He held them spellbound with wisdom and love that exceeded his thirteen years. Daniel has a zeal and love for God and life that continues to glow brightly. His light will forever shine in the hearts of all who came in contact with this very special young man.
