"T"

Tim Strachan participated in CYO sports at Holy Redeemer and Blessed Sacrament. Tim went on to attend DeMatha Catholic High School, where he gained National recognition in football. He also played basketball for the legendary Hall of Fame coach Morgan Wooten.

During the summer prior to his senior year at DeMatha, "T" (as he is affectionately known) was seriously injured in a diving accident at the beach which left him paralyzed and confined to a wheelchair. However, despite his challenges, "T" relied upon the faith and hard work he learned through his experience participating in CYO and has found success beyond the court.

He earned his law degree from Georgetown University and is currently Counsel for the U.S. Senate Judiciary Committee. Also, Tim is the radio Sideline Color Analyst for University of Maryland Football, an active member of Victory Youth Centers, and passionately continues to share his story as a Professional Motivational Speaker.

Tim Strachan credits the CYO for teaching him how faith can play a vital role wherever life's journey may take him.
